“MAPPA EXPO 15th Anniversary” Reveals Official Exhibition Key Visual!!

Brand-New Illustration for the Exhibition from Chainsaw Man – The Movie: Reze Arc, Attack on Titan Final Season, JUJUTSU KAISEN Revealed!

MAPPA is pleased to reveal the official key visual for “MAPPA EXPO 15th Anniversary.” Alongside the visual, the studio is unveiling seven brand-new illustrations created exclusively for the exhibition, featuring Chainsaw Man – The Movie: Reze Arc, Attack on Titan Final Season, and JUJUTSU KAISEN, as well as merchandise based on the “MAPPA 15th Anniversary Key Visual.”

▲Exhibition Key Visual

Celebrating the 15th anniversary of animation studio MAPPA, “MAPPA EXPO 15th Anniversary” will open at YURAKUCHO MUSEUM in Tokyo on September 16, 2026. Through a specially curated exhibition experience, visitors will be able to explore the distinctive worlds and creative appeal of MAPPA’s acclaimed productions, including Chainsaw Man – The Movie: Reze Arc, Attack on Titan Final Season, and JUJUTSU KAISEN.

The exhibition’s newly revealed key visual features the blue-eyed boy who appears in the “MAPPA 15th Anniversary Movie,” produced alongside PEOPLE 1’s original song “My Life.” As a symbol of MAPPA’s 15th anniversary, he serves as the centerpiece of a striking visual that embodies the exhibition and its celebration of the studio’s creative journey.

In addition, MAPPA has unveiled seven brand-new illustrations created exclusively for the exhibition, featuring Chainsaw Man – The Movie: Reze Arc, Attack on Titan Final Season, and JUJUTSU KAISEN. Created specifically for “MAPPA EXPO 15th Anniversary,” these special illustrations capture the unique worlds of each title and the charm of their characters. Merchandise featuring the newly revealed artwork is also planned for release.
